Marin is represented by 14 watercolors and 4 oils; Knaths by 15 canvasses, some of recent date. Marin, now 79, was given one-half of the exhibition space devoted to American painting in the Venice International of 1950. He is considered by many critics the most significant American artist of this half-century. Karl Knaths, 60, was a recent winner of the Carnegie International.

All paintings are from the collections of Duncan Phillips of Washington, D. C., loaned to the University for the summer months. A similar loan of contemporary French painters to the University of North Carolina brings to the Durham-Chapel Hill area an unusually significant collection of modern art.

Buz Thompson, the acting chairman of this organization, has tried in every way that he could to make your "out of class hours" more comfortable with dances, records, cards, and other forms of recreation. He also tried to serve you in other ways such as lost and found, hospital visitation, and posters.

If you have any suggestions about the Y.M.C.A. and how we could make this organization run more smoothly in the summer months, we would appreciate your criticisms.

Lead us, Heav'nly Father, lead us, O'er the world's tempestuous sea;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us, For we have no help but thee:
Yet possessing ev'ry blessing If our God our father be.
Saviour breathe forgiveness o'er us, All our weakness thou dost know.
Thou didst tread this earth before us, Thou didst feel its keenest woe.
Lone and dreary, faint and weary, Thro' the desert thou didst go.
Spirit of our God descending, Fill our hearts with heav'nly joy.
Love with ev'ry passion blending Pleasure that can never cloy.
Thus provided, pardon'd, guided, Nothing can our peace destroy.
Amen.

In His love I calmly rest. The Lord my Guide vouchsafes to be,

To pastures fair and tender: He leads me on by waters still,
My soul with comfort He doth fill, my Strength and sure Defender.

PRESIDENT A. HOLLIS EDENS, Presiding

Hymn—Holy, Holy, Holy (Nicaea) Dykes

Prayer The Chaplain

Anthem—Magnificat and Gloria Patri Lutkin

My soul, doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God, my Saviour.
For He hath regarded the lowliness of His hand-maiden, For behold, from henceforth,
All generations shall call me blessed, For He that is mighty, hath magnified me,
And Holy is His name, And His mercy is on them that fear Him throughout all generations.
He hath shewed strength with His arm, He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts,
He hath put down the mighty from their seat, and hath exalted the humble and meek,
He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich He hath sent empty away,
He remembering His mercy, hath holpen His servant, Israel, as He promised to our forefathers,
Abraham and his seed forever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost, As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind, Thy Father's will has all Thy mind,
From Heaven Thou hast vouchsafed to come, With men, as Man, to make Thy home,
O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind.
O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind, The way to please Thee we would find,
What'er we have, it comes of Thee, O let us ever near Thee be,
O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind.
O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind, Who came to earth The lost to find,
Who died to save us on the tree, Our hearts are filled with love to Thee,
O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind.
Thee with tender care I'll cherish, Live to Thee, Die to Thee;
Thus I shall not perish, but with Thee abide forever, joyfully, peacefully,
Where life endeth never.

Offertory Anthem—The Lord Is My Light Horatio Parker

Incidental Octet: Mrs. J. Foster Barnes and Mrs. A. E. Stanley, Sopranos; Mrs. H. E. Myers and Miss Betty Lassiter, Contraltos; Messrs. Charles Hance and Henry Markot, Tenors; Messrs. James Longley and Jack Vilas, Baritones.

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom then shall I fear! The Lord is the strength of my life, of whom then shall I be afraid!

When the wicked even mine enemies and my foes came upon me to eat up my flesh;

They stumbled and fell. Though a host of men he laid against me, Yet shall not my heart be afraid; and though there rose up war against me,

Yet will I put my trust in Him.

The Lord is my light and my salvation, whom then shall I fear! The Lord is the strength of my life, of whom then shall I be afraid!

Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto thee; Have mercy upon me and hear me.

Thou hast been my succor, Leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

O tarry thou the Lord's leisure, be strong and he shall comfort thine heart!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise Him, all creatures here below;

Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"Are You Going Somewhere?"

Dr. Frank S. Hickman

Preacher to the University

Benediction

Response by Choir—Thee We Adore, O Saviour from

"The Seven Last Words of Christ"

Dubois

Thee We adore, O Saviour, Bless Thee and praise Thee forever. For on the holy cross Thou hast the world from sin redeemed.

Organ—Grave from the Fantasia in G Major Bach

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital in the University Chapel on Sunday afternoon, October 7, at 4:00 o'clock. Her program follows:

George Frederic Handel (1685-1759)

Coucerto in G Major, Number I
Andante

Handel wrote sixteen concertos for organ and small orchestra. These concertos are usually played as organ solos, the simple orchestral parts being transcribed. The solo organ part is identified by using a separate manual.

Franz Joseph Haydn (1732-1809)

The Musical Clocks

- I. Minuet (Song of the Quail)
- II. March
- III. Andantino
- IV. Minuet (Allegretto)
- V. Minuet
- VI. Vivace

E. Power Biggs, who arranged The Musical Clocks, says, "These charming little pieces were written in 1792 by Haydn for a famous clock in Vienna. They were played automatically on a small flute organ, operated by the clock mechanism."

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

Fantasia in G Major

The Fantasia opens with twenty-eight bars of bravura for the manuals. It is followed by a five voice Grave which contains some fine polyphony. The mounting bars near the close of the Grave give an early hint of a modern effect. The Fantasia ends with a long cadenza.

Johann Sebastian Bach

Choral Preludes

I Call to Thee, Lord Jesus Christ
Hark, a Voice Saith, All Are Mortal

These preludes are from Bach's Orgelbuchlein, a collection of short choral preludes arranged on the general plan of a hymn book. They provide one of the most intimate revelations of Bach's poetic insight and religious faith.

Paul Hindemith (1895-)

Second Sonata in E minor
I. Lebhaft

Hindemith wrote three sonatas for organ which are important additions to contemporary organ literature. The themes of these sonatas are based on folk tunes. They are developed in classic style.

Sigfrid Karg-Elert (1879-1933)

Choral Improvisations

Now Thank We All Our God
O God, Thou Faithful God
Praise to the Lord

The works of Karg-Elert were originally composed for a portable harmonium with pedals. However, they actually assume new beauty when adorned with the more varied colors provided by organ pipes.

César Franck (1822-1890)

Pièce Héroïque

The Pièce Héroïque was written for the dedication of the organ in the Trocadero in Paris, 1876. Its martial style and military spirit is indicative of its name. The work closes with a broad choral which produces a majestic effect when played on full organ.

The next recital in the University Chapel will be on Sunday afternoon, November 4, at 4:00 o'clock.

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Built on a Rock the Church doth stand, Even when steeples are falling;

Calling the young and old to rest, But above all the soul distrest,
Longing for rest everlasting. Bells are chiming, calling.
Surely in temple made with hands, God, the most high, is not dwelling.
High above earth His temple stands, All earthly temples excelling;
Yet He whom heavens can not contain, Chose to abide on earth with men,
Built in our bodies His temple.

Hymn—I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord (St. Thomas) From Williams' Psalmody

Scripture—John 15:11-23

Call to Worship—Fill Your Hearts with Prayer

Echo Triple Trio directed by Miss Betty Lassiter

Why art thou cast down? Fill your hearts with prayer.

Why so disquieted? Fill your hearts with prayer.

He who clothes the lilies fair Marks the sparrows' fall,

Though a thousand foes assail, God is over all.

Our spirits faint, Our hearts are fearful,

Have we forgotten our Savior reigns?

Bliss he wakes and woe he lightens, Have we forgotten our Lord?

God has promised to deliver, God is watching over all.

Hymn—How Firm a Foundation (Portuguese Hymn)

From Wade's Cantus Diversi

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Holy, Holy, Holy (Kedushah)

Max Spicker

Soloist: Mr. Bob Jordan

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts.

The heav'ns and the earth are full of His glory.

The Lord is our strength, and our God our salvation,

O praise His name in all the earth, Thy name is praised and glorified in all the earth.

The Lord our God is one, the Lord our God is King, He is our Father,

He is our Helper, He is our Strength, our Salvation.

The Lord shall reign forever, thy God, O Zion, for evermore.

Hallelujah!

Hymn—O Love That Wilt Not Let Me Go

(St. Margaret)

Peace

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Onward, Ye Peoples! Sibelius-Lefebvre

Onward, ye peoples, strive for the Light!

The Light that the Lord hath given us for our guide,

Who through muck and darkness of night Hath led us in safety unto our reward.

See how the fiery pillar is gleaming, Lighting our steps, when dark is the way.

And the Light of the World cleaveth the gloomy blackness of night that else would engulf us.

See the cloudy pillar to shield us, safe when the sun would hlisten us.

Then forward, where faith revealeth the way!

For God is our guide, and He will never fail.

Fires are gleaming, voices are singing forth from Mount Nehoh's heaven-storming height.

Salem! Hark, they call us upward and on, to our Father's home.

Salem! On the horizon, urging us on to God our home;

And the heavenly choir doth ring from Mount Nehoh, piercing the blue like a living light. Salem!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise Him, all creatures here below;

Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

sermon—"Are You Sure?"

Dr. Frank S. Hickman
Preacher to the University

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin
The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance upon you; and give you peace.
The Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto
you. Amen.

Organ—Fugue in A minor

Bach

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital Sunday afternoon, November 4, at 4:00 o'clock in the University Chapel. The program follows:

Georg Friedrich Händel (1685-1759)

Chaconne in E minor

The chaconne is an old dance in triple time, the music of which is a series of variations over a ground base. The E minor chaconne begins quietly and develops in beautiful and romantic style.

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

Largo from the Concerto in D minor

Vivaldi exercised a considerable influence in the formation of Bach's musical style. Six of the twelve Concerti Grossi published by Vivaldi, were arranged by Bach. For many years the D minor Concerto was incorrectly attributed to the pen of Bach's eldest son, Wilhelm Friedmann.

Johann Sebastian Bach

Little Fugue in G minor

This bright and popular piece is generally called the "Little" G minor Fugue to distinguish it from the Fantasia and Fugue in the same key. The subject of the fugue is ever fresh and interesting.

César Franck (1822-1890)

Prelude, Fugue and Variation

It is believed that Franck originally wrote this work for two pianos, then transcribed it for organ. The prelude opens softly with short phrases developed in romantic style. The robust and dignified fugue which follows provides a striking contrast. The work closes with a lovely variation of the Prelude.

Louis Vierne (1870-1937)

Carillon

Almost blind from his birth, Vierne began his studies at the Institute for the Blind in Paris. Later he studied with Franck and Widor. He became organist of Notre Dame in 1900 and remained there until his death.

The Carillon is from a set of 24 Pieces en style libre.

Joseph Bonnet (1884-1944)

Romanee Sans Paroles

Joseph Bonnet was for many years organist of the Church of St. Eustache in Paris. As a brilliant teacher and performer he exerted far reaching influence in the realm of organ music.

Max Reger (1873-1916)

Introduction to Passacaglia

Reger contributed much to the organ literature of the present day. In spite of his romantic style, Reger's music is quite logical in form and his harmonies worthy of careful listening.

This true passacaglia, with its ground bass and interesting variations, builds to a great climax of massive sound in the closing bars.

PROFESSOR KARL BRUNNER TO SPEAK

Professor Karl Brunner, Head of the English Seminar of the University of Innsbruck, will speak at an open meeting of the Erasmus Club in the Green Room, East Duke Building, Woman's College, at 8:15 p.m. Monday, November 5. GENERAL FACULTY AND FACULTY COUNCIL

The General Faculty will meet on Thursday afternoon, November 8, at 4:00 o'clock in Room 116, Chemistry Building. In view of this meeting, there will be no meeting of the Faculty Council during the month of November.

DR. BILLY GRAHAM TO SPEAK

Dr. Billy Graham will speak Friday, November 9, at 2:00 o'clock in the University Chapel under the sponsorship of the Student Religious Council.

LECTURE BY SIGNOR LEONE VIVANTE

Signor Leone Vivante of Siena, Italy, will lecture under the auspices of the Department of English in the Green Room of East Duke Building, Woman's College, at 8:00 o'clock Friday evening, November 9. The Reverend Professor James T. Cleland, Preacher to the University, will deliver the sermon at the University Service of Worship on Sunday morning, December 9, at 11:00 o'clock in the University Chapel. His subject will be "The Grace of God Is in Courtesy."

THE REVEREND TAYLOR REVELEY, Presiding Minister

Organ—Choral Prelude—Now Comes the Saviour
of the Gentiles

How Brightly Shines the Morning Star Back
Buxtehude

Call to Worship—Fanfare for Christmas Day Martin Shaw
Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Hymn—Joy to the World! (Antioch) Arr. from Handel

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—I Wonder as I Wander Arr. Niles and Horton
Soloist: Mr. Henry Markot, Tenor

I wonder as I wander, out under the sky, How Jesus the Savior did come for to die,
For poor on'ry people like you and like I, I wonder as I wander,
out under the sky.

When Mary birthed Jesus, 'twas in a cow's stall, With wise men and farmers and shepherds and all.
But high from God's heaven a star's light did fall, And the promise of ages it then did recall.

If Jesus had wanted for any wee thing, A star in the sky, or a bird on the wing,
Or all of God's angels in heav'n for to sing, He surely could have it, 'cause he was the King.

Hymn—There's a Song in the Air! (Christmas Song)

Harrington

Scripture: Luke 22:54-62

Offertory Anthem—Star of Courage Wolfe
 Soloist: Dr. C. H. Richards, Tenor
 Once on the hills of Galilee A star arose to guide the Three;
 And they were wise Who followed far, The light of courage in a star!
 For they were lost beside the sea That has its shores on Galilee,
 And they were worn and they were chill, who saw the heav'n with brightness fill!
 And they were come from far to see The Child of God in Galilee,
 They followed in the holy light That went before them flaming white!
 Ah! As on the hills of Galilee A star once flamed to guide the Three,
 They too are wise who follow far, With courage guiding like a star!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
 Praise Him, all creatures here below;
 Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
 Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"The Grace of God Is in Courtesy"

The Reverend Professor James T. Cleland
 Preacher to the University

 you. Amen.

Call to Worship—Christmas Eve

Hageman-James

Soloist: Mr. Charles Hance, Tenor

There was a gentle hostler (And blessed be his name!)
He open'd up the stable The night our Lady came.
Our Lady and Saint Joseph, He gave them food and bed,
And Jesus Christ has given him A glory round his head.
So let the gate swing open However poor the yard,
Lest weary people visit you And find their passage barred;
Unlatch the door at midnight And let your lantern's glow
Shine out to guide the traveler's feet To you across the snow.
There was a joyous hostler Who knelt on Christmas morn
Beside the radiant manger Wherein his Lord was born,
His heart was full of laughter, His soul was full of bliss
When Jesus, on His Mother's lap, Gave him His hand to kiss.
Unbar your heart this evening And keep no stranger out,
Take from your soul's great portal The barrier of doubt.
To humble folk and weary Give hearty welcoming,
Your breast shall be tomorrow The cradle of a King.

Hymn—Hark! The Herald Angels Sing (Mendelssohn)

Mendelssohn-Bartholdy

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—The Shepherd's Story

Dickinson

Soloists: Dr. J. H. Phillips, Tenor; Mr. Ross Fogleman, Baritone; Miss Marilyn Nash, Soprano

Nowell! Sing we clear! Holpen are all folk on earth.
Born is God's Son so dear. To Bethlehem did they go, The Shepherds,
three:

To see whe'r it were so or no, Whether Christ was born or no to set men free.

Masters, in this hall, Hear ye news today Brought over sea, And ever you I pray.

Nowell! Sing we clear! Holpen are all folk on earth, Born is God's
Son so dear.

Then to Bethlehem town did the Shepherds go, and in a sorry place
Heard the oxen low. Therein did they see a sweet and goodly May Upon the straw she lay. And a little child On her arm had she

"Wot ye who this is?" Said tho hinds to me. Ox and ass him know kneeling on their knee
Wondrous joy had I—This little Babe to see. Nowell! This is Christ the Lord.

Masters, be ye glad! Christmas is come in, And no folk should be sad.

Nowell! Sing we clear! Holpen are all folk on earth, Born is God's
Son so dear.

The order of service follows:

DR. FRANK S. HICKMAN, Presiding Minister

Organ—Carillon
Carillon

Vierne Sowerby

Call to Worship—Lead Us, Heavenly Father Roger Quilter
Soloist: Mr. Henry Markot, Tenor

Lead us, Heav'nly Father, lead us, O'er the world's tempestuous sea;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us, For we have no help but thee;
Yet possessing ev'ry blessing If our God our father be.
Saviour breathe forgiveness o'er us, All our weakness thou dost know.
Thou didst tread this earth before us, Thou didst feel its keenest woe.
Lone and dreary, faint and weary, Thro' the desert thou didst go.
Spirit of our God, Fill our hearts with heav'nly joy,
With pleasure that can never cloy: Thus provided, pardon'd, guided,
Nothing can our peace destroy. Amen.

Hymn—O God Our Help in Ages Past (St. Anne.)

William Croft

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Arise, My Soul

Van Denman Thompson

Arise, my soul, Put off thy guilty fears;
The bleeding sacrifice In my behalf appears:
Before the throne my Surety stands,
My name is written on His hands.
He ever lives above, for me to intercede;
His all redeeming love, His precious blood, to plead.
Five bleeding wounds he hears, Received on Calvary:
They pour effectual pray'rs, They strongly plead for me:
"Forgive him, O forgive," they cry,
Nor let that sinner die, nor let that ransom'd sinner die.
The Father hears him pray, His dear anointed One
He cannot turn away The presence of his Son;
My God is reconciled; His pard'ning voice I bear:
He owns me for his child; I can no longer fear:
With confidence I now draw nigh, And "Father, Abba, Father," cry.

Hymn—Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah (CWM Rhondda)

John Hughes

Scripture—John 18:28-38

Offertory Anthem—Still, Still with Thee Arthur Foote

Soloists: Mrs. H. E. Myers, Contralto; Mr. John Hülker, Baritone; Miss Marilyn Nash, Soprano; Dr. C. H. Richards, Jr., Tenor.

Still, still with thee, when purple morning breaketh,
When the bird waketh and the shadows flee;
Fairer than morning, lovelier than the daylight,
Dawns the sweet consciousness, I am with thee!
Alone with thee, amid the mystic shadows,
The solemn hush of nature newly born;
Alone with thee in breathless adoration,
In the calm dew and freshness of the morn.
As in the dawning o'er the waveless ocean,
The image of the morning star doth rest,
So in, this stillness thou beholdest only thine image,
In the waters of my breast.
Still, still with thee! as to each new-born morning,
A fresh and solemn splendor still is given,
So doth this blessed consciousness awaking, Breathe, each day,
Nearness unto thee and heaven.
When sinks the soul, subdued by toil, to slumber,
Sweet the repose beneath my wings o'ershading
But sweeter still to wake and find thee there.
So shall it be at last, in that bright morning,
When the soul waketh, and life's shadows flee;
Oh, in that hour, fairer than daylight dawning,
Shall rise the glorious thought, I am with thee!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"Purpose for Living" Bishop Marvin A. Franklin
The Methodist Church, Jackson Area,
Jackson, Mississippi

The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance

you. Amen.

Call to Worship—Prayer

Guion-Downing

Lord, in this hour of tumult, Lord, in this night of fears,
Keep open, oh, keep open My eyes, my heart, my ears.
Not blindly, not in hatred, Lord, let me do my part;
Keep open, oh, keep open, dear Lord, My eyes, my mind, my heart!
Hear Thou my pleading, Hear Thou my prayer! Lord.

Hymn—A Mighty Fortress Is Our God Martin Luther

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Semi-Chorus—Jesu, Saviour, I Am Thine Bach-Steane
Soloist: Mr. Donald Millholland

Jesu, Saviour, I am Thine, Thou hast bid me call Thee mine,
All things else I count but loss, Find my Glory in the Cross.
Jesu, Saviour, I am Thine, Thou hast bid me call Thee mine,
In this only plea confide, That for enemies Thou hast died.
O fount of love unbounded, So full, so sweet, so free;
My thoughts are all confounded, Whene'er I think of Thee.
For me Thou can'st from Heaven, To suffer and to die,
That purchased and forgiven, I might ascend on high.
Jesu, Saviour, I am Thine.

Hymn—Be Strong! David S. Smith

Reception of Members

Scripture—Joshua 24:1-8, 14-18

Offertory Anthem—Great Is Jehovah Schubert-Lichter
Soloist: Miss Dorothy Jenkins, Soprano

Great is Jehovah, the Lord, The earth and the heavens bear witness to His Might!
'Tis heard in the blasts of the storm, In the roar of the loudthundering stream.
Great is Jehovah the Lord, and mighty His pow'r.
'Tis heard in rustling leaves on the green forest branches,
Seen in the fields rich with golden grain,
In flowers the fairest, blushing at dawn,
'Tis seen where stars strew the blue vault of heaven.
Fierce it sounds in the thunder's dread roll,
And flames in the lightning's swift and death-dealing flash.
Still clearer thy throbbing heart proclaims Jehovah's pow'r and might,
The Lord God Almighty.
When to heav'n thou dost pray, Imploring grace and compassion,
Great is Jehovah, the Lord!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;

Call to Worship—Prayer

Guion-Downing

Lord, in this hour of tumult, Lord, in this night of fears,
Keep open, oh, keep open My eyes, my heart, my ears.
Not blindly, not in hatred, Lord, let me do my part;
Keep open, oh, keep open, dear Lord, My eyes, my mind, my heart
Hear Thou my pleading, Hear Thou my prayer! Lord.

Hymn—All People That on Earth Do Dwell (Old 100th)

Melody from Genevan Psalter

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Brother James' Air

Arr. by Jacob

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want, He makes me down to lie in pastures green,
He leadeth me The quiet waters by. My soul He doth restore again
And me to walk doth make Within the Paths of Blessedness, E'en for His own Name's sake.
Yea, though I pass thro' shadowed vale, Yet will I fear no ill;
For Thou art with me, And Thy Rod and Staff me comfort still.
My table Thou hast furnished In presence of my foes;
My head with oil Thou dost anoint, And my cup overflows.
Goodness and mercy all my days Will surely follow me;
And in my Father's heart alway My dwelling place shall be.
And in my heart for evermore Thy dwelling place shall be.

Hymn—Thou, Whose Unmeasured Temple Stands (Dundee)

From the Scottish Psalter

Scripture—Matthew 5:13-20

Offertory Anthem—Immortal, Invisible

Thiman

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious, Thy great name we praise.
Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might;
Justice like mountains high soaring above Thy clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.
To all, life Thou givest to both great and small; In all life Thou livest, the true life of all;
We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but nought changeth Thee.
Great Father of Glory, pure Father of light, Thine Angels adore
Thee, all veiling their sight;
All land we would render: O help us to see 'Tis only the splendour of light hideth Thee. Amen.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

you. Amen.

DR. WILLIAM H. BROWNLEE, Presiding Minister

Organ—Chorale Improvisations Karg-Elert
Christ, Thou Lamb of God
Praise to the Lord
O God, Thou Faithful God

Call to Worship—Holy, Holy, Holy (Kedushah) Max Spicker
Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts.
The heavens and the earth are full of His glory.

Hymn—In the Cross of Christ I Glory (Rathbun) Ithamar Conkey

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—O Lord Most Holy César Franck
Soloists: Mr. William Dean, tenor; Mr. William Zerby, violinist.

O Lord most holy, O Lord most mighty, O loving Father, thee would we be praising alway.
Help us to know Thee, and love Thee; Father, grant us Thy truth and grace;
Father guide and defend us.
Rule Thou our wilful hearts, Keep Thine our wand'ring thoughts;
In all our sorrows, let us find our rest in Thee;
And in temptation's hour, Save through Thy mighty power,
Thine aid O send us; Hear us in mercy.
Show us Thy favor, So shall we live, and sing praise to Thee.

Hymn—When I Survey the Wondrous Cross (Hamburg)
From a Gregorian chant
Arr. by Lowell Mason

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—My Faith Looks Up to Thee!

P. A. Schnecker
Soloists: Miss Paddy Ann Wilson, soprano; Mr. Lyndon Sikes, baritone; Mrs. H. E. Myers, contralto.

My faith looks up to Thee, Thou Lamb of Calvary, Saviour divine!
Now hear me while I pray, Take all my guilt away,
O let me from this day Be wholly Thine!
May Thy rich grace impart Strength to my fainting heart, My zeal inspire,
Thou hast died for me, O may my love to Thee,
Pure, warm and changeless be, A living fire.
While life's dark maze I tread, And griefs around me spread,
Be Thou my guide,
Bid darkness turn to day, Wipe sorrow's tears away, Nor let me ever stray From Thee aside.
When ends life's transient dream, When death's cold sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll,
Blest Saviour! then, in love, Fear and distrust remove; O hear me safe above, A ransom'd soul! Amen.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"The Law of Cross-Bearing" Dr. Frank S. Hickman
Preacher to the University

ORGAN RECITAL WITH STRING QUARTET

A String Quartet, composed of Dorothy and Edgar Alden, violinists, Julia W. Mueller, violist, and Ernst Peschel, cellist, will join Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, in a recital on Sunday afternoon, February 3, at 4:00 o'clock in the University Chapel.

The complete program follows:

T. A. Arne (1710-1778)

Gavotte

Arne is known to us chiefly for his work as composer to Drury Lane Theatre, but he also composed oratorios, violin sonatas, organ music, etc. The Gavotte is a charming example of his graceful style.

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756-1791)

Three Sonatas for Organ and Strings

No. 1 in E^b Major (K 67)

No. 5 in F Major (K 145)

No. 4 in D Major (K 144)

The name of Mozart is seldom associated with the organ. Yet, for several years the composer occupied a post as organist in the Salzburg Cathedral.

These sonatas were first performed by the Court Orchestra in Salzburg Cathedral with Mozart at the organ. All are one movement in length and the more developed examples are symphonic in effect.

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

Chorale Prelude

We All Believe in One God, Creator

This work (familiarily called the Gigue), is treated as a fugue. The first phrase of the chorale melody is taken as the theme. Bach symbolizes truth by introducing a firm and forceful movement in the bass which punctuates the chorale. This ascending bass evokes in the mind of the listener the steps of a giant.

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

Four Sonatas for Organ and Strings

No. 9 in F Major (K 244)

No. 15 in C Major (K 336)

No. 10 in D Major (K 245)

No. 13 in C Major (K 328)

Mozart seems to have aimed specifically at a particular tone coloring and effect in these sonatas. He uses the strings in pitch both below and above the organ itself to form a miniature woodwind ensemble, thus binding all together.

Johann Sebastian Bach Passacaglia and Fugue in C Minor

Bach uses the theme of an earlier French organist, Andre Raison, in building his Passacaglia which contains 20 variations. The double fugue which follows is so closely defined that both voices can be heard as they are developed together. The theme of the Passacaglia is one of the voices in the fugue.

The order of service follows:

PRESIDENT A. HOLLIS EDENS, Presiding

Organ—Prelude:

Sketch in A Minor

Schumann

Andante from the First Concerto

Handel

Chorale Prelude

Bach

I Call to Thee, Lord Jesus Christ

Call to Worship—Holy, Holy, Holy (Kedushah) Max Spicker

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts.

The heavens and the earth are full of His glory.

Hymn—Praise to the Lord (Lobe Den Herrn)

From Praxis Pietatis Melica

Prayer

Anthem—A Mighty Fortress Is Our God

Luther-Muelken

A mighty fortress is our God, A bulwark never failing;

Our helper He, amid the flood of mortal ills prevailing.

For still our ancient foe doth seek to work us woe;

His craft and pow'r are great, And armed with cruel hate,

On earth is not his equal.

Did we in our own strength confide, Our striving would be losing

Were not the right Man on our side, The Man of God's own choosing.

Who that may be? Christ Jesus, it is He;

Lord Sabaoth, His name, From age to age the same,

And He must win the battle.

Hymn—Breathe on Me, Breath of God (Trentham)

Robert Jackson

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—"Lovely Appear" from
"The Redemption"

Gounod

Soloist: Miss Alicejean Thompson, soprano

Lovely appear over the mountains The feet of them that preach, and bring good news of peace.

Ye mountains, ye perpetual hills, bow ye down.

Over the barren wastes shall flow'rs now have possession.

Dark shades of ancient days, full of hate and oppression,

In the brightness of joy fade away, and are gone.

In this age, truly blest more than ages preceding,

Shall the corn never fail from the plentiful ground;

Under the shining sky shall the lambs gaily bound;

Void of fear, undisturbed, safely shall they be feeding,

Then the timorous birds; e'en the turtle dove meek,

Shall not fear any more the hawk's merciless beak.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise Him, all creatures here below;

Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"Is Our God Big Enough?" Dr. Charles C. Noble
Dean of the Chapel, Syracuse University

Benediction

Response by Choir—God Be in My Head

Davies

God be in my head, And in my understanding;

God be in mine eyes, And in my looking;

God be in my mouth, And in my speaking;

God be in my heart, And in my thinking;

God be at mine end, And at my departing.

Organ—Grave from the Fantasia in G Major

Bach

DR. ROBERT E. CUSHMAN, Presiding Minister

Organ—Suite from Water Music Handel

Call to Worship—Holy, Holy, Holy (Kedushah) Max Spicker

From Praxis Pietatis Melica

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—List! the Cherubic Host (from the Holy City) Gaul
Women's Glee Club
Soloists: Miss Alicejean Thompson, Soprano and
Mr. Ross Fogelman, Baritone

List! the cherubic host, in thousand choirs, Touch their immortal harps of golden wires,
With those just spirits that wear victorious palms, Singing everlastingly devout and Holy psalms.
And I heard the voice of harpers, harping with their harpa,
And they sang as it were a new song, before the throne, And no man could learn that song, but they which were redeemed.

Scripture—Mark 3:1-12; 20-21

Offertory Anthem—Hear My Prayer Will James
Hear my pray'r, Oh Lord, turn not away, hearken unto the voice of my supplication, hear my pray'r oh Father.
Thou art My God, hide thy face not from me, teach me to do thy will For I am thy servant, oh lift up my aoul, and deliver me.
Turn not away, oh Father, hear my pray'r, oh Lord.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Response by Choir—God Be in My Head Davies

God be in my head, And in my understanding;
God be in mine eyes, And in my looking;
God be in my mouth, And in my speaking;
God be in my heart, And in my thinking;
God be at mine end, And at my departing.

Organ—Allegro Maestoso from Water Music Handel

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University organist, will present an organ recital Sunday afternoon, March 2, at 4:00 o'clock in the University Chapel. The program follows:

Jacques Nicolas Lemmens (1823-1881)

Fanfare

Lemmens was professor of organ at the Brussels Conservatory and the founder of the Malines' School of Sacred Music. His best known work is his Ecole d'Orgue, based on the Roman plain chant.

Louis Vierne (1870-1937)

24 Pieces en style libre
Meditation

Vierne was the blind organist of Notre Dame for thirty-seven years. His collection of 24 Pieces presents varied and interesting short sketches in every major and minor key.

Robert Schumann (1810-1850)

Sketch in F minor

Although Schumann was not an organist, he nevertheless wrote for the organ or pedal piano, Four Sketches, Six Canons and Six Fugues on the name of BACH.

Paul Hindemith (1895-

)
Sonata I in E flat minor
First movement

Many modern composers have turned to the organ today. They have become interested in the revival of the contrapuntal style of Bach and his predecessors. Among them is Paul Hindemith whose three organ sonatas reveal a chamber music quality equivalent to the Bach trio sonatas in beauty of form and expression.

Leo Sowerby (1895-

Carillon

The Carillon opens quietly with impressionistic quality. Soon, soft bells are heard in a secondary theme. After a brief climax the piece closes with the original melody repeated in the ringing of chimes.

Lynnwood Farnam (1885-1930) Toccata on "Filii et Filiae"

This Toccata is the only composition which the great organist and teacher left. The theme in the pedals is an old Easter chorale melody.

Jean Langlais (1907-

The Nativity

The Nativity has four sections: the Crib, the Angels, the Shepherds and the Holy Family. This composition creates a very peaceful atmosphere. Langlais, the gifted blind organist of St. Clothilde, where Franck played for many years, will be in the United States for concerts this spring.

Marcel Dupre (1886-

Antiphon III
Fugue in G minor

Dupre, the eminent French organist and composer, was first acclaimed by music publishers and critics when he wrote three Preludes and Fugues for the soldiers during World War I.

The Antiphon III is from a set of 15 short pieces. Marcel Dupre used the theme in the Fugue in G minor as a facetious take-off on his own name.

Hymn—The God of Abraham Praise (Leoni)

Arr. from a Hebrew melody

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Lord of All Being

Mark Andrews

Soloist: Mr. Robert Styers, Baritone

Lord of all being, throned afar, Thy glory flames from sun and star;
Centre and soul of ev'ry sphere, Yet to each loving heart how near!
Sun of our life, Thy quick'ning ray Sheds on our path the glow of day;

Star of our hope, Thy softened light Cheer the long watches of the night.

Our midnight is Thy smile withdrawn; Our noontide is Thy gracious dawn;

Our rainbow arch, Thy mercy's sign; All, save the clouds of sin are Thine.

Lord of all life, below, above, whose light is truth, Whose warmth is love.

Before Thy ever blazing throne We ask no lustre of our own.

Grant us Thy truth to make us free, And kindly hearts that yearn for

Thee,
Till all Thy living altars claim One holy light one heav'nly flame.
Amen.

Hymn—Faith of Our Fathers (St. Catherine) Hemy-Walton

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—A Mighty Fortress Is Our God Mueller
(Repeated by request)

A mighty fortress is our God, A bulwark never failing;
Our helper He, amid the flood of mortal ills prevailing.
For still our ancient foe Doth seek to work us woe; His craft and power are great,
And armed with cruel hate, On earth is not his equal.
Did we in our own strength confide, Our striving would be losing,
Were not the right Man on our side, The Man of God's own choosing.
Dost ask who that may be? Christ Jesus, it is He;
Lord Sabaoth, His name, From age to age the same,
And he must win the battle.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Offertory Anthem—Love Divine (Welsh Chorale)

Prichard-Jones

Soloists: Mrs. A. E. Stanley, soprano; and Mrs. H. E. Myers, alto

Love Divine, all love excelling, Joy of heav'n, to earth come down;
Fix in us Thy humble dwelling. All Thy faithful mercies crown.
Jesus, Thou art all compassion, Pure unbounded love Thou art;
Visit us with Thy salvation, Enter ev'ry trembling heart.
Breathe, O breathe Thy loving Spirit, Into ev'ry troubled breast;
Let us all in Thee inherit, Let us find the promised rest;
Take away the love of sinning; Alpha and Omega be;
End of faith, as its beginning, Set our hearts at liberty.

Come, Almighty, to deliver, Let us Thy life receive;
Suddenly return, and never more Thy temples leave.
Thee we would be always blessing, Serve Thee as Thy hosts above,
Pray, and praise Thee without ceasing, Glory in Thy perfect love.
Hallelujah, Amen.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

And all the dead are ris'n through Him.
All peoples of the earth, rejoice; new Jerusalem, receive the light.

Chant songs of joy, O Zion.
And thou, O Mary, most pure mother of God, rejoice in the resurrection of thy Son.

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Great Is Jehovah Schubert-Lichter
Soloist: Mrs. J. Foster Barnes, Soprano

Great is Jehovah, the Lord, The earth and the heavens hear witness to His might!
'Tis heard in the blasts of the storm, In the roar of the loud-thundering stream.
Great is Jehovah the Lord, and mighty His pow'r.
'Tis heard in rustling leaves on the green forest branches,
Seen in the fields rich with golden grain, In flowers the fairest, blushing at dawn.
'Tis seen where stars strew the blue vault of heaven.
Fierce it sounds in the thunder's dread roll, And flames in the lightning's swift and death-dealing flash.
Still clearer thy throbbing heart proclaims Jehovah's pow'r and might,
Still clearer thy heart to thee proclaims Jehovah's pow'r,
The Lord God Almighty.
When to heav'n thou dost pray, Imploring grace and compassion,
Great is Jehovah, the Lord!
